

Commodores Corner
December 2020

Hello and Season's greetings to all. A few weeks back the Pukemanu Open was held. Some impressive fish were landed and weighed. Congratulations to all winners and a big thank you to all our sponsors.

The Christmas dinner was on last saturday and was a fun night with a few laughs a delicious meal and a beer or two see the mug shots further in the newsletter.

Our tractor is currently in Martinborough getting a tidy up and some over due maintenance done. Thank you to Kim Lace and the team at Ace Panel and Paint.

Club weekend is on this weekend hopefully if the weather settles. John dory is still our mystery fish so get out and try your luck.

Hope you all have a good rest over the Christmas period and get plenty of fishing in with family and friends.

Merry Christmas every one.

Morris replied, "Just doing what you said, Doc - 'Get a hot mamma and be cheerful.'"

The doctor said, "I didn't say that. I said, 'You've got a heart murmur- be careful.'"

Wiremu, had long heard the stories of an amazing family tradition. It appeared that his father, grandfather and great-grandfather had all been able to walk on water on their 18th birthday. On that special day, they'd each walked across lake Ohau to the pub on the far side for their first legal drink.

So when Wiremu's, 18th birthday came 'round, he and his bro Paura, took a boat out to the middle of the lake, Wiremu, stepped out of the boat . . . And nearly drowned!

Paura just barely managed to pull him to safety.

Furious and confused, Wiremu, went to see his grandmother.

'Nana,' he asked, "It's my 18th birthday, so why can't I walk 'cross the lake like my father, his father, and his father before him?"

Granny looked deeply into Wiremu's, troubled brown eyes and said,

"Because your father, your grandfather and your great grandfather were all born in July, when the lake is frozen, and you were born in December, ya dip shit.

The frequency of sexual activity of senior males depends on where they were born.

Statistics just released from Statistics Australia and The United Nations B.O.H. Team, reveal that:

Australian men between 55 and 85 years of age, will on average, have sex two to three times per week, (and a small number a lot more), whereas Japanese men, in exactly the same age group, will have sex only once or twice per year if they are lucky. This has come as very upsetting news to both me and most of my mates at the Golf Club, as none of us had any idea we were Japanese.

Gary & Liz were Christmas shopping. The shopping centre was packed, and as Liz walked through one of the malls she was surprised when she looked around to find that Gary was nowhere to be seen. She was quite upset because they had a lot to do and she became so worried that she called him on her mobile phone to ask him where he was. In a quiet voice he said, "Do you remember the jewellers we went into about five years ago where you fell in love with that diamond necklace that we couldn't afford, and I told you that I would get it for you one day?" Liz choked up and started to cry and said, "Yes, I do remember that shop."

Gary replied, "Well, I'm in the bar next door."

The most effective way to remember your wife's birthday is to forget it once....

The Annual Pukemanu BFC Christmas dinner went well,
With great food, drinks & company.

Not sure who this gate crasher was?? Or the guy/lady ?

Sarah was in the fertilized egg business. She had several hundred young pullets and ten roosters to fertilize the eggs.

She kept records and any rooster not performing went into the soup pot and was replaced.

This took a lot of time, so she bought some tiny bells and attached them to her roosters. Each bell had a different tone, so she could tell from a distance which rooster was performing. Now, she could sit on the porch and fill out an efficiency report by just listening to the bells.

Sarah's favourite rooster, old Butch, was a very fine specimen but, this morning she noticed old Butch's bell hadn't rung at all! When she went to investigate, she saw the other roosters were busy chasing pullets, bells-a-ringing, but the pullets hearing the roosters coming, would run for cover.

To Sarah's amazement, old Butch had his bell in his beak, so it couldn't ring. He'd sneak up on a pullet, do his job, and walk on to the next one.

Sarah was so proud of old Butch, she entered him in a Show and he became an overnight sensation among the judges.

The result was the judges not only awarded old Butch the "No Bell Peace Prize" they also awarded him the "Pulletsurprise" as well.

Really!

There once was a farmer whose wife had died and left him with three beautiful teenage daughters. Every weekend, when they went out on dates, the farmer would stand at the door with his shotgun, making it clear to their dates he wanted no trouble from them.

Another Saturday night came around. At about 7 pm., there was a knock on the door. He answered and the young man said, "Hi, my name's Joe. I'm here for Flo. I'm taking her to the show. Is she ready to go?" The farmer thought he was a clever boy and wished them a good time.

A few minutes later, another knock was heard. A second boy appeared and said, "Hi, I'm Eddie. I'm here for Betty. I'm taking her for spaghetti. I hope she's ready." He thought that he must know Joe, but bade them off as well with his best wishes.

A few minutes after that, a third knock was heard. "Hi, I'm Chuck..." The farmer slammed the door in his face....

AND NOW...

I HAVE SEEN IT ALL.
